Below is his obituary: "James Henderson Keist was born in Coshockton Ohio on Aug. 1, 1848 and died on June 1, 1932 at the age of 83 years and 10 months. In 1871 he was married to Sarah Margaret Hines. They made their home in Indiana and later moved to Omega, Illinois where they lived until the death of his wife. Five sons and one daughter were born to this union. Sam, the youngest of the family was a little baby at the time of the death of his mother. The deceased with family lived for a while in Sparta, Indiana and later again in Illinois. During the 1st 22 years he made his home with his youngest son Sam Keist of Grand Meadow. While he lived in Sparta, Indiana he became a member of the Baptist church. During the 22 years he lived in Grand Meadow he seldom went anywhere, attending strictly to his own affairs. He was highly respected in the community for his industry in trying to do whatever he could. His departure is mourned by one daughter, Mrs. Mabel BeDunnah of Greensberg, Indiana; four son, Leonard, Nathan and Isaac of Hudson Illinois and Sam of Grand Meadow; 14 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren other relatives and friends. A son Harvey of Franklin, Pa., died in 1925." Family links: Parents: William Ramsey Hines (1807 - 1879) Eliza Hitchcock Hines (1817 - 1897) Siblings: Mary Jane Hines Burrows (1831 - 1918)* Rebecca Ann Hines Marlow (1836 - 1913)* Samuel Thorne Hines (1839 - 1920)* William Richard Hines (1842 - 1926)*
