held a contest in recitation, essay, religious oration and debate. Several of those elected to fill these classes could not be in school for the close of the term and hence it was decided to change the nature of the contest somewhat and select some other contestants. Those elected from the Lomaxs, Smiths and Green Blach, Linn Wilson, Maggie White and Lee Kinross. Those from the Philanthropian are Helen Casper, Coye Mikes, Ernest Crisp and Herbert Vandy.

Gifts of the Month.

The past month has brought the following gifts to the Academy from the Sabbath schools of the district:

Waterloo	$ 2.00
Galatia	2.00
Marion	3.00
Wabash	5.20
Crossville	1.00
Arnsda	3.50
Knoxville	10.00
Highpoint	4.00
Provisionals required	25.34
Total	$21.04

Beside these gifts donations to the endowment fund have been received as follows:

Chapel church	$225.00
Chapel church	12.00
Byrd in Piquette church	5.00

A Chicago friend has also made a donation amounting to five dollars in help on with the work of the Academy. There is yet a pressing need for other gifts as the school year is drawing to its close and many obligations will have to be met.

Commencement Week.

The commencement exercises will be presented in the graduating class of the Academy in the Acorn Presbyterian church on Sabbath evening, May 24. On Monday evening the Declamation contest between the Philanthropian and Lomaxs Literary Societies will be held in Bessie Hall. On Tuesday evening the Alumni held their annual banquet. The class day exercises will be given on Wednesday evening in the Assembly Room of Deane Hall, and following these exercises will come the General Reception. On Thursday evening, May 28, the commencement exercises will be held in the Presbyterian church.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

ELMIRA. This church has been experiencing a glorious revival. Mrs. Smith has been holding services in the church and fifty-eight persons have been reported as being converted during the meetings. Thirty-three persons have communed with the Presby-terian church, and those with six others who were received in the Pastor Rev. M. E. Harris since he came upon the field. The membership has increased from 11 to 68. There are others who are expected to become members shortly.

ACADEMY TALK

Class.
Commencement.
Class meetings.
Only three weeks more.
The cold weather has killed off the weeds.
Ask Elizabeth Case if letters will still turn.

The commencement exercises promise to be lively.
Bessie Davis now takes orders for strawberry plants.

Katherine has been trying to get into the class made famous by another Jerry Simpson.

The classes are full of girls for each other and their mothers will likely continue all vacation time.

For bargains in pencils, pens and other junk see L. M. Cline, Jr. He always keeps a full stock on hand.

The members of the basket ball team recently had their pictures taken. It is a good one from south to north.

A representative of the Illinois College at Jacksonville visited the Academy lately and inspected the books.

Prof. Taylor's horse is beginning to assume a ruralized air and the youth of the academy of the future is growing perceptibly bushier.

About fifty books have been purchased and placed in the Margaret Carter Library during the past few weeks much to the delight of the students.

A new catalogue is being talked of among the persons that be. If the view looking toward the Mississippi river could be reproduced in anything like its reality it should find a place among the ads.

Grandma Does Altman, the fourth sister of the Academy unfortunately was presented to a grand old gentleman on Thursday evening, April 23, in Deane Hall. Local talent furnished the entertainment and gave a most pleasing program. Grandma Does, in the person of Miss Clara Hall, invited her neighbors in the fashion of an old time lady and each of her guests sang, recited or played the piano, after which the family solemnly was engaged choosing some item, usually being victims of the long ago. The well-known w-a-plantation and the presents apart from the course taken amounted to $11.35.

The Declamation Contest.

The final member of the Academy entertainment course given for the purpose of purchasing a new glass for the Assembly Room, will be held in Deane Hall on Monday evening, May 25. The original plan was to have
